China. Four photograph albums depicting Peking Union Medical College, c.1907-15

China. A group of four personal photograph albums relating to the London Missionary Society and the creation of Peking Union Medical College, circa 1907-15, a total of approximately 290 mostly window-mounted gelatin silver print snapshots, the majority of Peking scenes and people, plus classes and patients at the Peking Union Medical College, sparsely captioned but with mention of various western missionary names including Edwin Robert Wheeler and his wife Emily (nee Meech), Dr Wenham, J.M. Stenhouse, Ethel Livens, the Stucke and Cormack families, images mostly approximately 7.5 x 10cm and similar sizes, a few photographs loose, plus four leaves of manuscript notes (in more than one hand) giving information on some of the photographs, contemporary cloth, rubbed and marked, one volume with spine near detached, non-matching 8vo
