

Dominic Winter Auctioneers

Printed Books, Maps & Autographs (MAY20)

Thu, 28th May 2020

Viewing:

Restricted viewing by appointment only from Friday 15 May until Tuesday 26 May (excluding Bank Holiday Monday 25 May). Click here for details.

Lot 562

Estimate: £5000 - £7000 + Fees

The Gentleman's Magazine, or, Monthly Intelligencer, 276 volumes, 1731-1877 & 1880-94

The Gentleman's Magazine, or Monthly Intelligencer, 276 volumes, 1731-1877 & 1880-94, a near unbroken run, lacking only 4 half-yearly volumes for 1878 & 1879, illustrated with numerous copper-engraved plates, maps, and engravings to text, including early publications by Samuel Johnson, one of the earliest British publications of the Declaration of American Independence (volume 46, 1776), some browning or spotting and some offsetting to maps and plates, the majority in uniform 20th-century buckram gilt with gilt-titled red leather spine labels and gilt stamp and bookplate of Gray's Inn Library, a few volumes rebound to match, a little rubbed and faded, 8vo

Qty: 276